Direct Temporary Housing

- Jackson County has been approved to participate in FEMA’s Direct Temporary Housing Program along with four other counties: Linn, Lane, Lincoln and Marion Counties.
- FEMA has plans to provide additional mobile temporary housing units in established Jackson County parks. Preparing these sites for occupancy can be a labor-intensive process, it is expected that these sites could be completed as early as June.
- Temporary housing is provided one of two ways: recreational vehicles (RVs) and Manufactured Housing Units (mobile homes).
- Survivor housing units are chosen by FEMA based on the survivor family composition and needs, as well as to ensure that requirements for access or functional needs are met.
- Ongoing participation in the program, which can last until March 2022, depends on each survivor’s efforts to find a permanent housing solution and following the rules established by the park and FEMA.

Public Assistance

- As of Apr. 27, FEMA has obligated 25 Project Worksheets and nearly $1.1 million in Public Assistance funding in Jackson County.
